N his speech at the laying of the foundaion stone of the new Law Courts on Thurslay last, H.E. the Governor sp-ke of the oming time when drowsy, disjointed China hall have been aroused by the bustle of reat railways carrying her merchandise, hen the reciprocal trade of East and West ill be indeed as an ocean to a lake, er arms flung wide for the unrestricted ommerce of the world, will see her crowded hipping spread into the deep-dredged bay f Yaumati and waiting to load or unload t the wharves of the Kowloon terminus of he great arterial railway from Canton to lankow. The picture is an enticing one, ut, before we give ourselves up to admiraon of the prospect, it is as well to think ow near we are to realisation of it. Tester. by saw the opening of the first piece o ne in connection with the Canton end of e Canton-Hankow railway, a subsidiary ne, it is true, but still an earnest of what is come. From Hankow southward con-may consider that the Canton-Hankow project is within measurable distance of its consummation. It is recognised, pretty well universally now, that Canton will not be the final southern terminus of the railway, but that some spot on the coast affording deepwater anchorage for ocean liners will be chosen, whither the trains will run through Canton. . The only question is, where will of the United States. this spot be? For Hongkong the question narrows itself down to the issue whether the spot will be in Kowloon or elsewhere. If elsekong from which it will be impossible for the Colony to recover. Our prosperity, if not our existence, is bound up with the fact of our being the trade junction of South China and the outer world. , Take this privilege away, and the Island drops (commercially speaking) to the rank of a fortress and dockyard, practically a Far Eastern Gibraltar, and little else. Hongkong cannot stand the fate of Macao would be ours. This is no alarmist exaggeration, but a fact which must be recognised by sober judges. Fortunately there is an alternative. There is the alternative of building a line from Kowloon to Cauton. There is in existence a concession. How long is this to be allowed to lie idle? Do the present concessionaries intend to take it up? And if not, are the prospects of the Colony to be sacrificed to their maction? These questions have been asked, in one form or another, for years. The answer is not yet forthcoming. A few years more may pass, and the questions will not be worth answering. But what will then be

A despatch received by a Chinese official hero from Canton, says the N.-C. Daily News, states that Viceroy Teen (Shum) a few days ago telegraphed to the Throne declaring that as Manchuria was the cradle of the present dynasty and race, it should be the duty of all the Emperor's subjects to fight to the death for the integrity of the Three Eastern Provinces (Féngtion, Kirin, and Reilanget.iaug) and free to react the imperial armies now under his command against the Russians. In roply to the Victory's offer of services, which, by the way, was sent on the 1st inst., the Emperor commends His Excell ncy's patriotism and loyalty to the Throne, but commands him to remain for the present in the Two Kwang where his efforts at restoring order in Kwangsi are deeply as preciated by their Majesties. The Emperor, however, goes on to assure His Excellency that in the event of war being declared his loyal offer will not be forgetten and that special commands will be forwarded to

The N.C. Daily News also says that it is reported from Peking that Li Ching-ha (nephew of the late Marquis Li Hung-chang), at present Governor of Kweighau province, is going to be appointed Imperial High Commismoner to Kwangsi with full powers to crush the rebellion now going on there. The reaso why Governor Li Ching-hsi has been selected for this work, it is stated, is due to the fact that while His Excellency was in Peking about five weeks ago he offered to the Throne to raise two million taels and equip a special force of 20,000 men to festore peace in Kwangsi province The proposal also has, in all likelihood, reference to the probability of Viceroy Shum's presence being required by the Throne in the north.

HONGKONG GUN CLUB.

ANNUAL CHAMPIONSHIP.

On Saturday the championship meeting of the Hongkong Gun Club concinded, having commenced on the previous day. More than usual interest attached to the contest this year as it was H.E. the Governor's last chance of securing the champinship, for which he has twice been beaten only after a tie with the ultimate winner. Unfortunately, he had to fire with a damaged finger, which caused him some pain. Had he been in the best of form, however, he would have had to do wonderfully to beat the actual victor, Mr. A. Campbell Macmillan, for the latter fired in magnificent style and only dropped one point, at end of the first ton. There was a desperate struggle for third place. There were thirteen entries, and the scores were as follows :-11111-11110-9

CHINESE PRESENTATION TO HE. THE GOVERNOR.

AN EMBROIDERED CANOPY. The Kaifong-street committee-of Second and Third Streets (Western District Hougkong City) at noon on Saturday presented Sir Henry Blake with an embroidered canopy of unique Chinese design and workmanship. It was intended as a parting mark of esteem by that section of the native community with whom Sir Henry co-operated in carrying out certain experiments for the successful treatment of Chinese plague patients.

The experiments—the results of which we published some time ago-were conducted in two blocks located at one of the worst plague districts in the Colony, viz: No. 9 District. Shortly before noon the bang of Chinese cymbals and other similar more or less musical instruments were heard in the vicinity

House. Sharp at the hour a procession It was typically Chinese. First came two boys carrying paper lanterns upon which were inscribed characters for "With greatest respect we appreciate your benevolence"; next came two pairs of boys carrying flags; then two pairs of Plass lamps; two boys with peculiar head-dress three banners in succession; a "band"; three ornamental trays in anccession; a "band" another the banner; canopy; and finally repre-sontatives of the kaifong in chairs. When the kaifong representatives had alighted, the company repaired to the ball-room, where Sir Henry and Lady Blake received them. The canopy was placed in the centre of the room.

Those present were Sir John Keane, A.D.C. Hop. W. Chatham, Hon. Dr. Atkinson, Dr. Pearce, Col. Webb, B.A.M.C., Hon. A. W. Brewin, Registrar-General, Inspector Gidley, Messrs, Fung Wa Chun, Lau Chu Pak, Liu Yi, Lau Chiu, Cheng Tai, Mak Hi, Tsang Saug, Mak Chak, Kwek Nam, Cheong Chi, Chan Chan, Tem Chan, Man Ling, Fung Ken, Yuan Shan, Wan Foon, Mang Yat. Chan Ki, Mak Sui, Chak Choung, Man Chai, Fung Ken a d Wong Wai, and the members of the leaifong. Mr. Liu Yi, on behalf of the kaifong. read the following address :- Your Excellency -The mumbers of the Committee representing the kaifong of Second and Third Streets are met here to-day to crave your Excellency's pleasure to accept a memento of the work which your Excellency, at great persmal inconvenience, conducted in the interest and for the protection of the lives of the inhabitants of No. 9 District in this Colony. At the commencement of the annual visitation of plague this year, your-Excellency manguratof the experiments in the treatment of Chinese patients. Those expariments resulted in immense benefit to the people in that I cality. The sympathy for the suffering of the poorer citizens of this Colony, so generously manifested by your Excellency, deeply touched them, and moved us, as the representatives of the district which came under your special and benign care, to an expression of our gratitude to you. It was the unprompted desire of every one of us that a souvenir should be subscribed for and presented to your Excellency now that you are so shortly to leave Hongkong at the conclusion of your period of administration here. This souvenir takes the form of a canopy of no in rinsic value, but testifies none the less to the

sincere appreciation and thankfulness of those who feel, so seasibly, your Excellency's solicitation for the assuagement of their troubles when beset, by the calamitous ills such as befall us with each direful visitation of the droaded We beg you, Sir, to accept the memento with our reiterated thanks. With this expression we couple the prayer that both you and Ludy Blain Hay have long years before you to enjoy to the all the blessings of health and prospecity and the reward of his Majesty M. Combes, speaking in the Senate, said for the unqualified success of your administration in Hougkong. I have received from time to time addresses and presentations but never one that I have received with greater pleasure than this beautiful umbrella which will be a memento of the work that you and I undertook and carried out during last summer -work, the effect of which may be more farreaching than is considered probable at premoral tranquillity of the country. This is very satisfactory, and I hope that the system which you have inaugurated will ultimately extend or, in a short time extend, to the whole city, and that I shall hear, when far away from Hongkong, that the San tary Board has ceased to be looked upon by the people with fear and trembling, and that the medical officers of health are received, as you receive them, as friends, and that the duties of the sanitary inspectors will be rendered light by the personal supervision of the kaifongs of the district. When that time comes, I hope and I think that the health of the city will be greatly improved. and you will be proud that you were the to the civilised world through the opening of a first to assist in the inauguration of a system, the result of which may be the cleans- Hon. THE A.D.C. AT THE THEATRE.

"LORD AND LADY ALGY." In attempting R. C. Carton's successful comedy Lord and Lady Algy, the Hongkong Amateur Pramatic Club set themselves a formidable task, but the Club has ever been wont to make a brave effort, and certainly Saturday night was an occasion on which ambition was justified. We do not mean to say that the performance was perfect, but it was assuredly better than that of any of the professional companies which visit Hongkong, with the exception of the Broughs. It is not that the acting was uniformly good, for there were degrees; but in one and all of the cast there was enthusiasm and determination to go the whole way, to borrow a sporting phrase. It is this characteristic which is one of the chief charms of the A.D.C.'s work, and it was well marked on Saturday. The one drawback, in our estimation, was that the action dragged too much. There was only one absolute pause, owing to the delay of one of the actors in the Ball scene in appearing on the stage; but there was in several places a need of quickening upo Doubtless much of this will disappear to night. The defect is a small one compared with that exhibited by the company.

The plot of the play is familiar-it has been seen before on the Hongkong stage-so that it is with the interpreters only that we need concern ourselves. To begin with, it must be admitted that one performer stood in a class by herself. Others were good, but Mrs. Grace was more than good. She is a fluished actress, on whose possession the Hongkong stage has every reason to pride itself. A batter Lady Algy we do not want to see. Esse, voice, charm of manner and the instinct for comedy are all hers, and the result of these qualities is a happy one. The audience was not slow to show its appreciation, but Mrs. Grace fairly won all the applause which she got. Lord Algy was in the hands of Mr. Buttlerworth, whom Hongkong has been anxious to see in the part, owing to the reports of his successful treatment of it in Shanghai. His was a good performance on Saturday. At first he appeared a trifle frigid, but he improved rapidly; and, though he was one of the chief sinners in protracting the action, he had at least the excuse that his part demanded a certain amount of "going easy." It is much in his favour that the Ball scene he played that most difficult of all stage-parts, a drunken gentleman, without vulgarity. Generally speaking, he was hardly enough of a sportsman. Nevertheless his rendering of this essentially "Hawtrey" part

No other character, of course, stands out so much as the title-roles. But there is much opportunity for a lot of good acting in half-adozen other parts. Mr. Bird rose to the occasion as the Dake. Perhaps a little too senile, he yet admirably indicated the reasons wby his younger son held him in such awe. In the hat seene he was very amusing. Mr. John Hays's Quarmby was not his best appearance in amateur dramatic circles, but we doubt whether the part could have been assigned to more capable hands. Voice and manner were exceilent; the make up not so good. Both Captain Bushe and Mr. F. H. Bell made hitsas Coldstream officers, particularly Mr. Bell, whose laugh in the state of the part of the second act was a perfect disguise, if not what Lord Algy would call "wonderful pretty." Surgeon Norris was a little disappointing as Tudway and altogother too melodramatic in Act II; he was letter in the quieter scenes. Smaller parts were efficiently played by Major Baker-Browne, Lieutenant Davidson and Hodgson (a very high-trued reporter), Messrs. Chapman, Hudson, and Silas; Mr. Northcote's Swepson is perhaps also a small part, but he managed to invest it with a good deal of humour and to keep the house on good terms with him. Of the ladies we have already mentioned Mrs. Grace. Mrs. Patrick. Jones had the next largest speaking part; sho played it with no slight charm and looked very well, in the first and thirds acts especially. Miss Huzeland's Lady Pamela was an excellent aunt to her niece Ottiline, while Mrs. Pomberton imparted a charming air of youth and innocence. Mrs. Baker-Browne might have been more quernlous as Mrs. Vokins, but was always amusing, and Mrs. Chapman made the most she could of the role of Emily Cardew. Hing, of the Tung Wa Hospital, who visited

The costumes and mounting of the pieces were alike first-rate. The majority of the former, at least as far as the fancy clothes are concerned, came from Shanghai, but were copied from the original dresses. The scenery was as good of its kind as we have seen here. The orchestra was that of the Philhermonic Society, under the able conducting of Mr. George Grimble. The stage manager was Mr. George Caldwell, who was assisted by Major Bunny, A.O.D., while Ar. H. C. Nicolle was acting manager. The whole performance was produced under the direction of Mr. E. W. Mitchell, evidence of whose constant and conscientious labour was abundantly manifest. The police had fortunately been instructed to regulate the traffic during the performance, so that no such interruptions to hearing were present as there generally are in the neighbourhood of the City Hall at night.

AL FRESCO FETE IN THE CATHE-DRAL COMPOUND.

Last night the annual fete, held under the auspices of the Ecciety of S. Vincent de Paul in aid of the funds of that admirable Society, took place in the grounds surrounding the Roman Catholic Cathedral under the supervision of members of the Society, assisted by the Sisters of the Convent, near by. The scene had been transformed into a veritable fairyland, and reflected the greatest credit on the organisers and their corps of willing assistants. Always well attended, the fite last night maintained its record, and entrance money came rolling in, each entrance ticket entitling the holder to a souvenir. The stalls were tastefully set out with a very varied assortment of dainty | unchanged. work, from a tiny baby's sook to an elaborate cushion in moiré antique. Nor were the chi dren forgotten, for there were toys of an assortment to gladden the hearts of every child in Christendom, and a good butiness was done everywhere, to the financial advantage of this most deserving charity. There were shooting galleries, in which prizes for good shots consisted of dolls and their requirements in the shape of garments, beds, and parambulators, and last, but not least, a refreshment stall where good things in the shape of 'edibles and exceeding $8,000 per annum (which shall drinkables were being dispensed at a very played a very choice selection of well-known heading, and quotations same as given last. classic and operatio compositions, and altogether the organisers are to be congratulated on a very | sales. successful function.

POLICE COURT.

Saturday, 14th November,

BEFORE ME. T. SERCOMBE SMITH (POLICE MAGISTRATE).

DARING ROBBERY.

the prosecution was that a sampan-woman was report for the year ended 3 st July last, shows a pointed out. The man embarked and the woman rowed off, but had not proceeded far, when one of the men in the boat seized her, throwing ransacked her belongings, stealing jowelry valued at $22. The third man meanwhile $15,192.68 for previous year). From this pulled back to the shore. The woman alleges that she was thrown overboard, but managed to cling to the boat until nearing the shore, when she shouted for help. A Sikh constable $2,000 (last year $5,000), bringing that fund up and two sepoys gave evidence of the arrest of the men, but their testimony was of so conflicting a nature that His Worship remanded the case until this morning.

BEFORE MR. J. H. KEMP (ACTING POLICE MAG STRATE).

STOLEN, NOT BORROWED.

Cheng San, servant of the captain of the a.s. Borneo, lying at Kowloon, was charged with theft of a watch-chain belonging to his master. The testimony of the complement showed that early on Saturday morning he caught the boy in the act of fumbling with the lock of his safe, with keys which he had extracted from his (complainant's) pocket. In explanation the accused said he had borrowed the watch-chain to wear the previous night, and was then going | carried on by me at Hongkong and elsewhere, to put it back. This story did not appeal to His Worship as worthy of any credence, in the face of the adverse testimony of the complainant, and he accordingly sentenced the accused to three months' hard labour, with three hours in the stocks at Kowloon.

HONGKONG JOTTINGS.

The peroration of His Excellency's apoech on the occasion of the laying of the foundation of the new Law Courts was a very happy one, and naturally evoked loud applause. The picture drawn by Sir Henry Blake of a reconstructed city of Victoria, with the dome of the Law Courts from its centre dominating all, was graphic and not difficult of realisation. When the building is erected and the gardens in front of it all laid out, the statues of King Edward and the Prince of Wales erected in position, that of the poor Duke of Counsught rescued from its unsavoury environment, and all the great blocks on the Reclamation up to the Mutual Stores completed, the centre of the city will be really imposing.

But I wonder how long it will be!

The explanation of the Director of Public Works notwithstanding, I fail to see why the Law Courts should not have been built years ago. They could well have been commenced at the same time as the Hongkong Club, and should long ago have been completed. Even now, at this late date, there is no reason, except perhaps red tape, why the building should not be completed in two years from date. The foundations are in, and the cutting and Handock, the score mounted fast, and it was dressing of the granito need not delay the not until 178 had been recorded that Radeliffe was run out in attempting to steal a run. work if only a sufficient number of men are His 74 was a distinctly good innings for put on the job. Of course, if the Guilds his side, but he was very lucky, being let are to be permitted to continue to limit the off three times behind the wicket alone. supply of labour in order to keep up the rate of wages, we must perforce wait their pleasure. This is virtually what we have been doing for years, and must continue to do until a new head stiffens the backbone of the administration.

What has become of the project for the erection of a statue to celebrate the long and notable connection of Sir Thomas Jackson, Bart., with this Colony? Has the statue been ordered, is it being cast, and when may we expect to see it arrive? Where is it proposed to erect this most suitable memorial of one of the makers of Hongkong? One proposal was to place it under the dome inside the Bank, but there is not room for it in that busy spot, and it would not be open to the public. The other suggestion was for its building. This would be an excellent and appropriate site.

The address to be presented to His Excellency the Governor is now lying at the Clubs, Banks, and several of the principal astores for signature. To think it will commend itself to the community; as being moderately worded, and as a veracious record of Sir Henry Blake's administration. I note. that no allusion is made to His Excellency's policy towards the Chinese, no doubt in order to avoid the introduction of disputations matter, On this subject public opinion is underiably much divided, and the majority of British and foreign residents are not in sympathy with the Governor's policy. At the same time they are glad to give His Excellency credit for the good work he has done, and pleased to take the opportunity of giving him a cordial send-off.

I learn that it is not probable our new Governor. Sir Matthew Nathan, will arrive much before the middle of next year. He isnot to leave the Gold Coast until February next, and it is unlikely that he will be prepared to preceed at once to take up his new appointment He may even-I have no intimation to that effect, but such things have hoppened when · flicials, have endured for some years the disemforts of tropical Africa-wish for time to take unto himself a Leipmest, who could assist him to dispense the hospitalities of Government

I have read Mr. Robert Shewan's letter to the Times on the subject of the Admiralty Dock and Naval Yard, and while I admire his perseverance in a good cause, regret that he should have wasted time in propounding a ome for the consideration of the Admiralty which they cannot listen to. Hunghom is en the wrong side of the water, and is as much at the mercy of an enemy's fire as Yaumati, where they declined a really magnificent site, It is, however, of little use, I fear, agitating the question further, for the Admiralty have clearly made their decision. Unless the Colony is prepared to find them un equally advantageous site on the northern shore of this island and undertakes to bear all costs of removal, the Naval authorities will refuse to listen to either blandishment or abuse.

The laying down of a tramway line in any cit y is generally accompanied by acnoyances to the citizens, who, however, put up with the discomforts in view of the great advantage to be ultimately gained. But there can be no excuse for the clouds of dust that have been driving from the tramway track within the past three or four days. A peck of March dust is said to be worth a ton of gold. The dust which blows from the tramway track just now should be worth considerably more. It gets into one's ears, eyes, and hair, and puts one in mind of a Yorkshire road in the early part of the year. If the contractor of the tramways would remove the gnano-sacks which cover the wet concrete there would be less cause for complaint; instead, these are left to rot on the track and to be carried away on the wheels of passing rickshas.

The Garrison went in to but first, Chichester having won the tess; Smith and Heath faced the bowling of Lowe and Sercombe Smith. The first three overs produced four runs, but in Sercombe Smith's second over Heath' let ont and made 10. Smith imitated his example off Lowe's bowling, but Heath was then dismissed at the other end, the score being 26. Three runs later Boyd, who followed in, was caught off Lowe. On Radcliffe's arrival a small stand was made, and the score was brought to 45 before Smith left, caught off his namesake's bowling for an useful 29. Chichester stopped till 61, and Radeliffe and Daries played on up to the tiffle interval, when the score was 77 for four wickets. On resumption Davies was quickly out, making 84 for 5, and then followed the Gurrison's biggest stand, causing frequent changes of bowlers, and adding 46 runs, of which Hodgson made 20 in only five hits. The next three men did nothing, the seventh, eighth, and ninth wickets falling at 134, 142, and 147; but with Bradford in as last mnn Radeliffe forced the pace considerably. Bradford being missed by couple of hours to make 179 in, it did not look at all probable that they would succeed unless | Sik-ling 3, H. Thomas. 7, L. A. Chanson 1 an extra good pace could be kept up, and the J. M. Wong O, F. H. Fame 3, not cut, F. C. start was not at all promising, Bradford's bowl- Mow Fung 0. G. Benning 0, extras 24 ing being difficult to hit. However, it was Queen's College: 45 (W. G. Anderson 6, Y. M. Chichester who took the first wicket, getting | Jaman 2, She Shiu-kit 8, Ko Po Sham 5, Hung Sercombe Smith out, 1b.w., at 20. Maitland Lu-kwang I, Wong Shui-Cheong 4, Hung-Luwas out at 31, and Hancock at 46, so that the fau 3, Chai Pe-in 0, Cheong Kwok-wing 0, Dixon next got together, and somewhat altered the complexion of affairs, putting on 38 runs between them, of which Dixon's share was 27. Arthur came in to hit, and succeeded in making two boundaries, but was then bowled by Bradford. A series of disasters came on now, Turnor being out sixth at 118, having made a pretty and patient 34 out of the 87 while he was in; Pearce left at 122, Mackenzie and Bird at 141, and all seemed over. Mast was still in, and there was Lowe to come, but 38 runs were still required, and the light had become, to say the least, poor. No one would have erection in front of the Wardley Street façade been surprised, therefore, to see a speedy of the Bank, just within the rails, in the space termination and a defeat for the Club. outside the City Hall, near the entrance to that | As a matter of fact, what followed was one of the most sensational pieces of but at length the H.K.'s went down in a line, play ever seen on the Hongkong Ground, and Danby tested Edwards with an oblique The bowlers, especially Heath, were bowling for all they were worth, but instead kick the Artillery bore down on the Hongkong of dismaying the forlors hope of the Club citadel, but Bonnar-who was playing a fine this seemed to infuse extra vigour into Mast's game-intervened, and transferred play to the and Lowe's play. The veteran in particular seemed to delight in hitting Heath (who, it is ensued; then Gough, securing the ball, shot true, bit Mast frequently in return), and the hard and straight at Kew, who experienced score mounted by leaps and boundaries. Only some difficulty in effecting a clearance-in 31 runs had been scored off Heath's first 12 overs; in his next six 50 more were added! When the match was a tie enthusiasm was great, and the winning hit was tremendously, being well-timed and powerful, but Aucott was applauded-for Hongkong. The two batsmen continued, however, to hit about until 196 was reached, when Lowe was caught and bowled by Chichester for an excellent 22. Most carried his bat for a faultless 43, one of his best contributions to local cricket, and was deservedly fortunate that Lowe also rose to the occasion for otherwise a really exciting spectacle would

FOOTBALL.

HONGKONG F.C. v. R. G. A. This match, played on the Happy Valley ground on Saturdsy, resulted in a win for the Hongkong F.C. by three goals to one.

Hongkong won the toss, and thereby, secured a material advantage, setting their opponents to play against a strong grave from the sun. The Artillery went off with a rush, but the Hongkong halves were all there, and easily frustrated all attempts to get within shooting distance. Play was for some time confined to mid-field and somewhat desultory in character; shot from the wing. From the ensuing goal other end. A period of give-and-take play fact it appeared as if he carried the ball beneath the bar in doing so. The Hongkong tacks were playing a strong game, their kicking the more prominent,

It was apparent at this stage of the game that the H.K.F.C. men were more skilful in the manipulation of the ball than their military opponents, and, after a pretty piece of combination between Danby and Whitamore, the latter brought into the Pavilion shoulder-high. His | ended by sending in a shot just above the bar. pluck and eye were wholly admirable. It is The Artillery, in response to the exhortations of their supporters, again got away," but found the opposing halves too strong for them, Honnar putting in some good work. Edwards in goal was kept busily occupied, but showed himself equal to all emergencies. More effective combination by the Hongkong forwards followed, and Macdonald, from the half-back line, put in a shot which beat Edwards all the way, the ball going in at the corner of the net. The Hong? kong halves were feeding their forwards with good judgment, and Danby again attempted to score, but the ball went wide of the posts. It was evident that the Hongkong team were the superiors, their opponents being seldom able to get within range of Kew, and after another good run, the ball being passed along the whole forward line, it was taken along by Danby, who centred across the mouth of the goal, and Cooper had no difficulty in administering the finishing touch. Half-time arrived with the score :- H. K. F. C. 2, R. G. A. 0. On resuming, the Hongkong forwards immediately bore down upon the soldiers goalnow kept by Copper, who, having been crippled in the first half, had changed places with Edwares. The ball was passed across the Danby, who sent in a sky-scraper. The Artillery were now playing a harder game, and after a brisk run Gough sent in a stinger which best Kow, the military spectators testifying their elation at his snocess. Again the play reered to the other and, and four corners were conceded to the Hongkong team, but were of no avail. When the siege was raised. Gough again got within shooting distance, and sent in a beauty, straight at Kew, who, however, held his charge intact. Sanott and Bonnar had changed places in this and the latter showed his all-round capability by his sterling work in his new pesition. It was now a foregone conclusion that the soldiers were to meet with defeat, and in the last minute of the game expretty combined passing run by the Hongkong men, and a good centre by Cooper, enabled Whitamore, by a line scene special to make victory a certainty and the permeter duded with the scores:— Hongkong F.C. ... 3 R.G.A.

The teams were: H.K.F.C: Goal, F. H. Kew; backs H. C. Austen and R. F. Aucott; half backs G. B. Macdonald, J. W. C. Bonnar, and J. M Forrester; forwards, W. H. Williams, H. A. Brent, C. R. S. Cooper, R. A. Whitamore, and J. D. Danby.

R.G.A : Goal, T. Edwards; backs, Loughran and Boyle; halves, Spence, Copper, and Duley; forwards, Gough, Giblin, Toone, Catterall and Browning.

Referce, Mr. Frank Browne. At the conclusion of the match Mrs. Atlanson presented the Challenge Cup and the medals to the winners in the six-a-side compe ition.

To-day the H.K.F.C., "A" team will meet the V.R.C. 2nd XI. at 4.30 p.m. The following will be the teams:-H.K.F.C. .- Goal, A. N. Other; backs, C. T. Kew (Capt.), H. C. Austen; haives, J. M. Forrester, W. T. Caulfield, R.E., H. E. Gaskell. R.E.; forwards, E. J. Davies, W. H Williams, P. H. Campbell, R.E., and L. C. Rees. V.B.C.: Goal-W. A. Crake; backs, J. Witchell and J. Christie: halves, H. C. Sayer. W. Andrews, F. D. Bain; forwards, H. W. Sayer, J. H. Seth, R. Henderson, C. Humphreys, and A. Marti.

THE ROYAL HONGKONG YACHT CLUB.

CHAMPIONSHIP CLASS. The four championship yachts contested their second race on Saturday afternoon, commencing at half-past one. An eleven-mile course from a line off Police Pier, Kowleon, to Kowleon Rocks, Channel Rocks and Meyer's East Buoy, twice around, and then home, was the track. The weather was tine, and a light but steady wind came from the east. A cloudless blue sky added cheerfulness to the scene; altogother the day was ideal for yachting. Aileen got the foremost position at second gun fire, but Vernon, gathering headway before the others, drew up to first place. Being outside, she also profited somewhat by being able to make a longer inshore tack than the at the outset. Initially, Elspeth was third and Dione last; it was not long, however, before they changed places. Passing the reclamation works and heading for Blackhead's Pier, Vernon, ed by about 39 longths; Ailcon closely followed by, and losing ground to Dione, was second, and Elspeth brought up the rear a long way behind.

Vernon passed Blackhead's Flagstaff a little over four minutes ahead of the second bout; and she secured a slightly fresher breeze than the others astern. Also, while the latter were still reaching by short tacks, she was able to maintain her course towards Kowloon Dock peninsula, thereby gaining all the time, Aileen and Dione paired when nearing Blackhead's, but Ailcen drew chead again before the Point was reached. Ship passed the Point half a minute abead of Drone i one minute divided Elepeth and Dione. A plain sail on the starboard tack was maintained by all the yachts when crossing Hunghom Bay. Half way over Dione drow up Ailren and Elspeth then formed into an equidistant procession. On timing the yachts as they rounded the Peninsula it was found that Vernon continued lead by about four minutes; Dione was about 23 minutes ahead of Ailcen; and one minute or on Alleen and secured second place. Dione so separated third and fourth. After gybing around Kowloon Rocks, the first plain sail on the port tack was commenced. Vernon, still gaining slightly, leaned over to the breeze, which was just the right force for comfortably carrying all conves.

Ailean lost ground to Dione. On rounding Channel Rocks spinnakers were 'set and main booms shoked off on the starboard side. The loose canvas bellying to the wind drove the yachts along at a good pace. Vernon, by the way, passed the latter point nearly five minutes ahead of Dione; Dione was 34 minutes ahead of Ailcen; and Espeth half a minute behind the latter.

Meyer's East Buoy was rounded by Vernon I minutes ahead of Dione, 91 minutes ahead of Ailcen, and over ten minutes ahead of Elepeth. When rounding Kowloon Rocks and Channel Rocks for the second time Vernon and Dione were about the same distance apart. Ailcen and Eispeth, however, divided by some twenty or thirty seconds, had lost another four minutes or so on the foremest boats. Vernon won easily.

Vernon's average speed was nearly three miles ONE-DESIGN CLASS.

On Sunday afternoon at one o'clock four of the five one-design vachts were started. Collecn alone was absent, the Hon, H. E. Pellock, K.C., her on der, having gone to Tientsin. The course was the rime as that used by the one-designers on Saturday. A fresh wind was blowing from the east.

after the commencement, however, it became a dull overcast. Min and Bonito got the last start; Kathleen third; and Brica behind Min, it may be remarked, had a narrow shave of crossing the line before second gun fire. Bonito, Erica, and Kathteen were simost together when off Kowloon peninsula. Some tough head-reaching was undergone to make the Dock Peninsula. On rounding it. the yachts were put on the starboard tack till Kowloon Rocks were reached. Then, a slant on the port tack was make towards Channel Rocks; it was necessary to make a short tack before fetching this point. Rounding Channel Rocks the race was a litt. over 50 minutes old. The order was: En iou Bonito and Kathleen almost together, and Min. One minute separated first and second, and about 14 first and fourth. On the passage to Meyer's East Buoy the yachts were primarily in procession running before the wind with their booms slacked out to starboard and spinuakers on the other side.

At the outset the sky was fine and clear; shortly

Kathleen drow up and passed Bonito when well on the way to Meyer's Buoy. After rounding; the boats were put on the starboard tack and headed across the harbour towards Kowloon Bay. Nearing Kowloon Dock Peninsula Bonito drew up almost level with Kathleen. Erica was about a minute ahead of these beats, and Min about a minute behind

Then followed a run over a portion of the same course already traversed. After rounding Channel Rocks for the second time and setting off for home via Meyer's East Buoy, a smacking pace was attained. Result --

Kathleen Min ... 3 15 Bonito SECOND CLASS

The second class followed in the wake of the one-designers, starting ten minutes after them. Seven yachts of this group turned out, those absent being Metcor and Maid Marian, Iris and Alamah, closely followed by Direct and Chanticleer, got the best start. Next Mist and Gloria; Payne was some distance behind. At Kowleen Dock Peninsula Alaunah was first, Iris second. about two minutes behind; Chanticleer and Gloria, close together, next: and Dorcen, Mist, and Payne a long way astern. Alannah gained steadily elmost from the start. After rounding Kowloon Rocks and Channel Rocks in turn she ran before the wind at a smart rate, reaching Meyer's East Buoy five minutes ahead of the next boat. When the rearguard, consisting of Doreen, Mist, and Payne, were rounding Meyer's East Buoy for the first time, Alannah was passing Kowloon Dock peninsula.

The finishing order and times were:-

3 24 4 Iris ... 3 32 17 Chanticleer ... 3 32 44 26 3 24 29 Chanticleer ... 3 ... 3 45 35 3 39 25 -3 30 50 ·

When corrected the order is :- Gloria, Chanticleer, Alannoh, Iris, Mist, Payne, and Dorcen. 75° AT MID-DAY!
